Placement Team- Managerial Jobs

Development Bank of Ethiopia

Addis Ababa, Ethiopia

Dear Sir/Madam,

As staff of Development Bank of Ethiopia, I'm applying for Manager of Industry project appraisal which I am willing and capable to actively engage and exploit to the maximum of my knowledge and skill in the appraisal work of project financing at the work unit under the president. I have started my career at DBE from Junior officer up to senior officer at different work unit of the bank like PRLR team at Aleta Wondo branch, Research team at head office and Appraisal team at Addis Ababa for more than ten years with admirable results at each work unit for almost all my lifespan within the bank. I've demonstrated my analytical thinking and decision making abilities in the process of rehabilitating sick projects at PRLR, data collection and analysis at research and viability checking at appraisal.

Through all of the past years, I had gained good experience and understanding of project financing which I initiate me to join for managerial posts in addition to my educational background and career of interest.

Accordingly I am currently applying for Industry project appraisal Manager Position for which I have a vision to appraise projects through all inclusive dimensions as per the Bank's credit policy, procedures & guidelines and NBE's directives.

My vision is to contribute a role in the process of making DBE a world class institution with strong initiation and commitment by implementing duties Appraisal work unit keeping in to consideration the new reform program of the bank effectively in terms of quality time and cost. To visualize my vision, I strongly believe and able to organize team members for quality outputs thorough consensus with harmony and smooth communication. Technically I will apply peer-teaching, knowledge and experience sharing for improvement of the team member's skill. It is my belief that good appraisal of project has high impact in the future success of projects. Hence I am eager to appraise project files with strong commitment and initiation in a proper manner which led to bright their future fate.

Finally, I wish to win my second choice of managerial post due to the following things

1. Related educational background
2. Above 10 years related DBE work experience
3. 7 month and 4 days team leader delegation experience on 2019/20
4. 6 month team leader delegation experience on 2018

Sincerely yours

Daniel Yemane
